JOPLIN, MISSOURI

JOPLIMO OF NINETEEN HUNDRED

MRS. EDNA CLARK

Mrs. Clark reigns calmly over Study A in an atmosphere conducive to concentration. Ready and able to help her manly charges in any subject, she still sees that they get their lessons. Understanding, loyal, helpful—there is no teacher in all JHS who commands more respect from her students.

We dedicate this 1947 edition of the Joplimo to our beloved Study Hall teachers, Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Chestnut. We wish to express, in this small gesture, our appreciation for their untiring efforts ~~in our~~ ^{in their} behalf.

Mrs. Chestnut is the patient little lady who has charge of the large brood of girls who are forever breezing in and out of Study B. We love her for her cheerfulness and devotedness to us. We'll all agree that her post is one of the hardest in the school, and we admire her faithfulness to it.

MRS. EDNA CHESTNUT

Some snooze — some dream—some even study in our “Hall of Learning.” Mrs. Clark patiently abides the endless questions, while we wearily plod on.

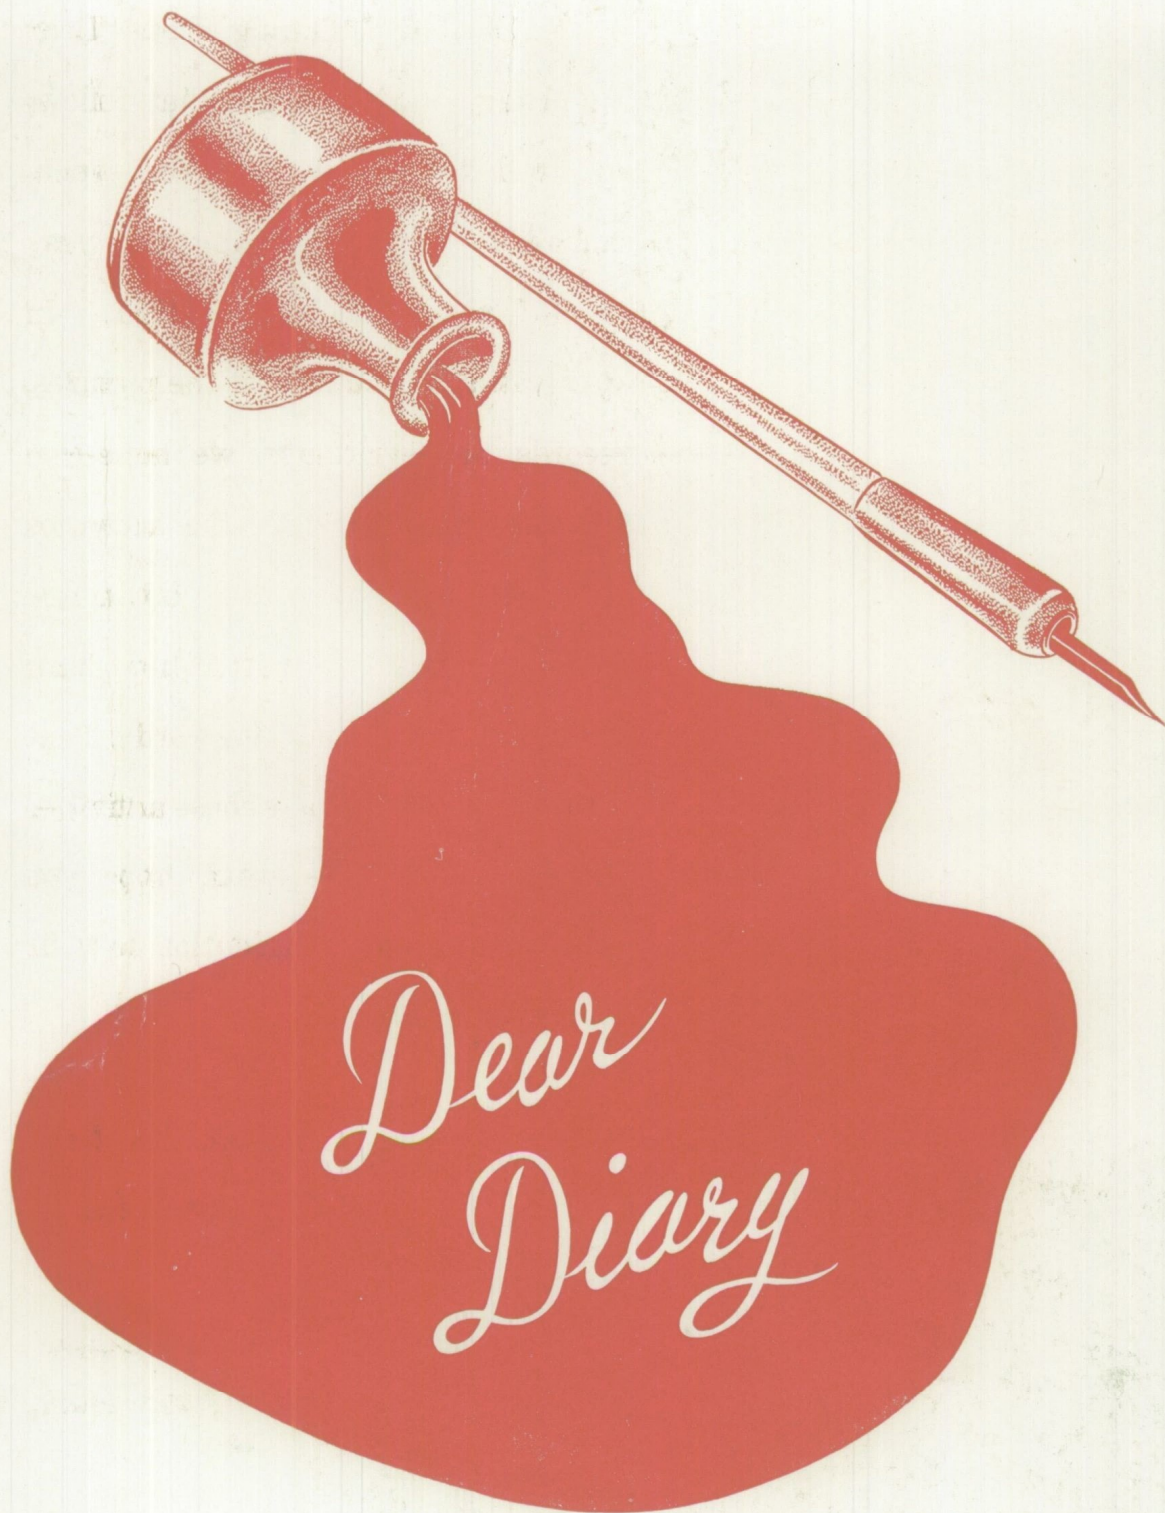

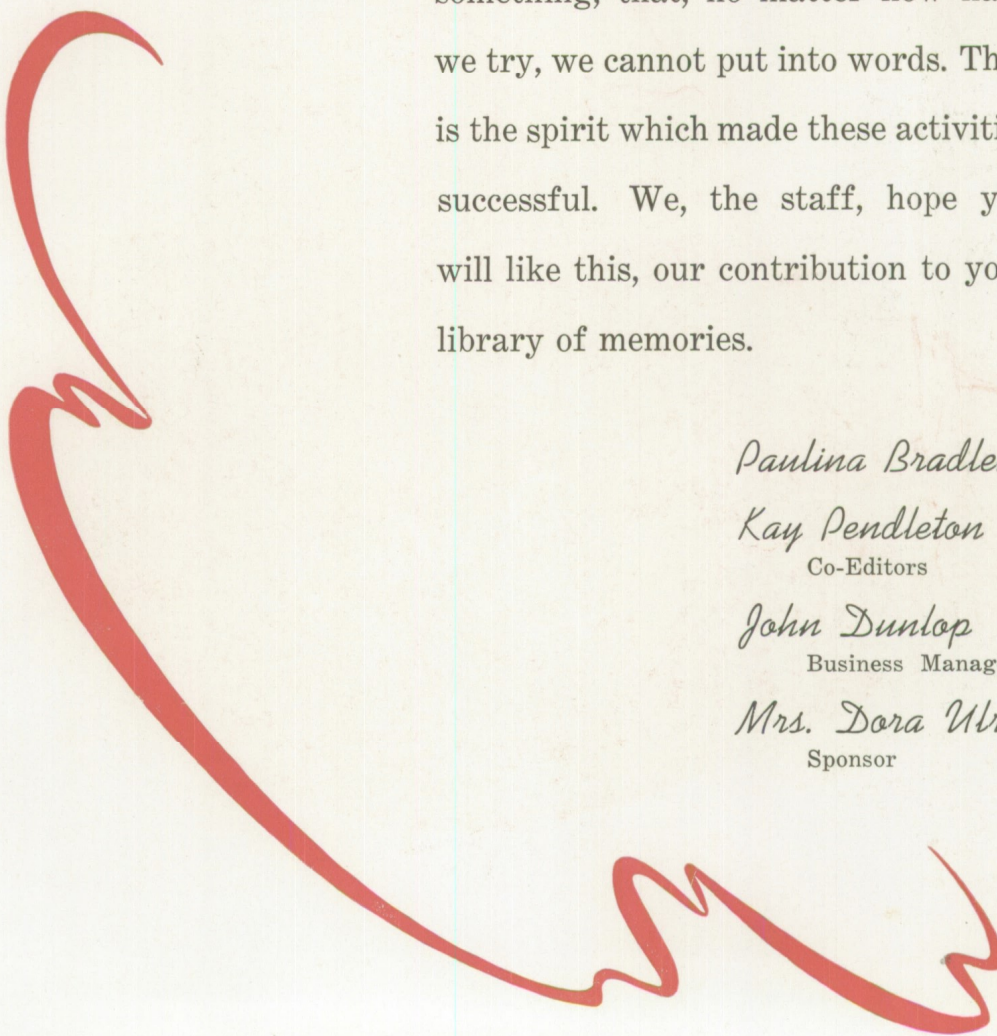

Just as scholarship is the key to success, so is study the key to scholarship “Halls of Learning”—yes, that’s what they are. Here—we cram into our heads those long assignments and study for those “killing” exams.

It’s that little hall “around the corner” where Mrs. Chestnut ever tells us how to rise in the world and where we’ll ever find a “friend in need.”

THIS is the beginning of our "Dear Diary." In the pages that follow, you will find a record of the events that have occurred during the year 1946-47 at Joplin Senior High. In later years, as you look at the pictures, records, and write-ups, we hope you will remember not only the activities portrayed, but also that intangible something, that, no matter how hard we try, we cannot put into words. That is the spirit which made these activities successful. We, the staff, hope you will like this, our contribution to your library of memories.

Faltering Footsteps

Many times a day we see the shadows of boys and girls walk the short distance to the public library for study and research.

Militant Monday

Every Monday the student Council, under Francis' guiding hand, hatches plans to keep us in line. These include the sponsoring of assemblies, locker-checking, and other helpful but unobtrusive jobs. With an elected representative from every home room, our Student Council is a real sample of young democracy at work.

No blue Mondays for us — we're too busy. Our "militarists" practically take the place over. The Student Council with its "iron hand" the teachers' meetings, and the weekly R. O. T. C. inspection. Yes, I think we can really call it "Militant Monday."

Howard is getting ready for that regular Monday competition that all the R.O.T.C. boys take part in. They sit at home Sunday evening polishing buttons, shining shoes, and brushing uniforms for all they're worth. One man in every company wins the striking red and green orderly braid for one week —if he is absolutely spotless in inspection hour. Next Monday everybody gets a new chance.

Testimonial Tuesday

"Testimonial?"—I should say. Here we see Madge and Lois busy with that little machine. All they do is turn the handle and we are the poor sufferers. These tests are very educational we're told, but we are more at ease when we know it is a notice or an assembly program "in the print!"

Tuesday is a busy day for all. Students are taking exams, final preparations are made for the class plays, and those roving reporters can be seen about the halls rounding up the latest news. We all suffer from writer's cramp 'cause the assignments get longer as the week gets well underway.

The pictorial art work on the back board tells us that this little quiz is over Tennyson's "Idylls of the King."

Work-A-Day Wednesday

Oh, those much dreaded grade cards—given out on Wednesdays at 3:30. There's a rush to compare marks. "I came up in Algebra—guess I collect that fifty cents from Dad." "Looks like I forfeit shows for awhile—'M' in English." Well, one good thing—grades are only exposed once in six weeks.

Our Wednesdays are "full up." All scurrying here and there trying to get something done—military on parade, teachers working to get grade cards out, and students working to get grade cards out—of sight. Y-Teens' program day. Yes, with all these activities, we're glad to hear the 3:30 bell.

This group of girls is responsible for those interesting programs sponsored by the Y-Teens. They are the members of the executive board with Shirley Williams, president, at the head. They are always hard at work on plans for future meetings.

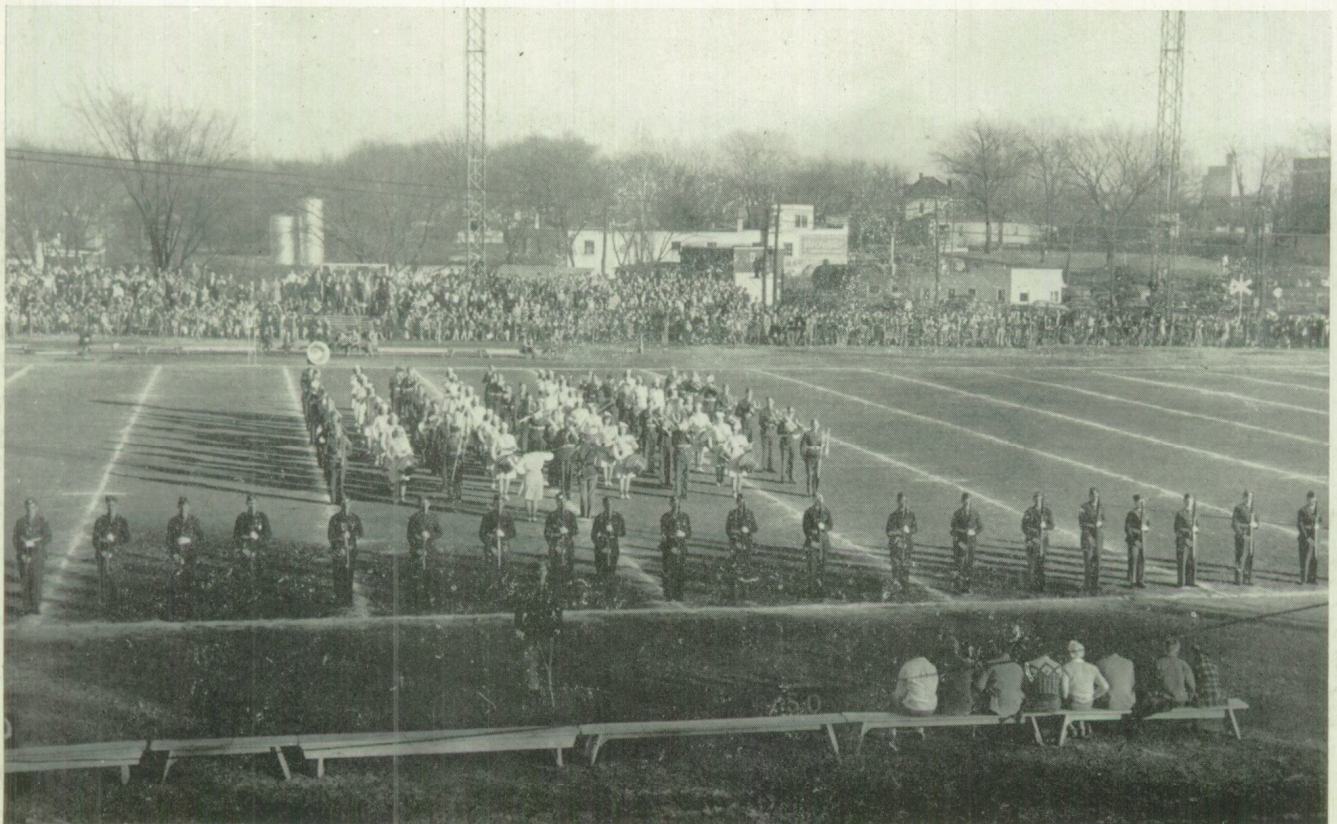

Tenacious Thursday

Politics galore . . . on election day.

Military on Parade at the victorious Turkey Day game.

The outcome of the election, the thrill and excitement of the Thanksgiving game and every other week our society meetings shine brightest in the recollection of the fourth day—Thursday.

Forensic Friday

Those unforgettable Fridays . . .
guest speakers, special programs, and oh!
yes, those sixty four dollar words.

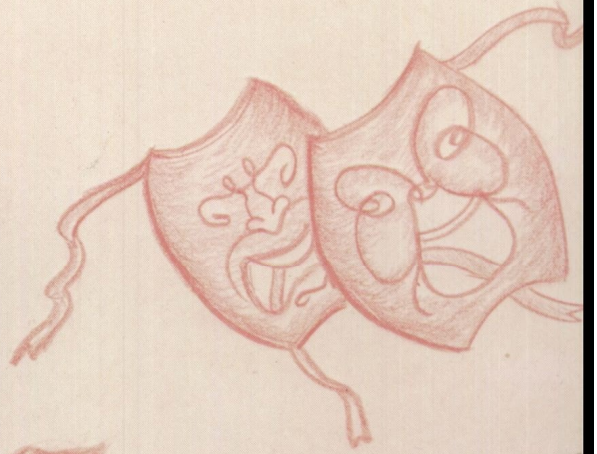

President Francis reports.

Mary Jac and Betty distribute the roses to our football lettermen.

A Spoke in the Administrative Wheel

Administration—that's our job. We governed the student body with a firm and resolute hand, striving toward more student direction throughout the school. "Progressivism" (as Francis says) was our motto, and we did progress as to more co-operation and understanding between teachers and pupils. A grand and glorious year it was at the head of our dear old J. H. S.

Meet the Teachers of 1947

The days roll around but a week never passes that historical knowledge isn't added to our "brain power." By means of a history book, we learn the deeds of Alexander the Great, Napoleon, and many others. For present day events we exchange the texts for magazines and newspaper articles, and we'll all agree historical hints help.

Our English teachers initiate us into the mysteries of gerunds, conjugations, pronouns, and diagramming; then guide us as we read "Monsieur Beaucaire," "Thanatopsis," "Macbeth," and other literature. They also help us in original composition, and as a result many of our English students have won awards in both prose and poetry contests.

To help us fit ourselves for a useful place in the world is the aim of our Industrial Art teachers. They give us practical demonstrations for the various courses in sheet metal, mechanical drawing, and many others. Probably some of our names will be important ones later, because of our training today.

Military Molds Minds

Left! Right! Left! . . . We're learning discipline the hard way in our Military Classes. Some of us will get our start on a career in the service of the Armed Forces, thanks to the good training we're getting now. Though we complain of aching feet and of the long hours spent shining shoes, we know that we'll appreciate this strict discipline.

We remember him for his enduring enthusiasm which put us on the road to greater achievement.

MISS SUSAN HASWELL
History

We remember her for her brilliant personality which ever urged us to higher ideals.

"These hearts were woven of human joys and cares,
Washed marvelously with sorrow, swift to mirth.
The years had given them kindness. Dawn was theirs,
And sunset, and the colours of the earth.
These had seen movements, and heard music; known
Slumber and waking; loved; gone proudly friended;
Felt the quick stir of wonder; sat alone;
Touched flowers and furs and cheeks. All this is ended."

The debaters have persistently pursued their defense, as to the "do's and don'ts" favoring and opposing a socialization of medicine in the United States. The pleasure derived from this type of "brain exercise" will always remain with the members of this year's debate team.

Orchestra

Grab that little book of important dates and quick-like jot down the school year 46-47. Just ask anyone in the Music Department and they will tell you about all the fun and hard work they had preparing for the assemblies, games, concerts and the trips to Enid and Columbia. The Music Festival on March 20, 21, and 22 was one that could never be excelled. We all gained some valuable experience from it. Another big event was the orchestra's concert celebrating twenty-five years of service to the school. But what really topped the year off were the out-of-town trips. All the music organizations were outstanding—even if we do say so. And it's no wonder we came back singing "Hail Columbia." This year is one that will be remembered for many years to come.

Dear Diary —
Here it is Wednesday

again and all the P.O.T.C.
boys are dressed for parade —
shiny shoes, mirrored buttons, and knife blade plates. All of us females go to the auditorium
for one of those inspirational Y-Teen programs. I can hardly wait for the spy glass to come out tomorrow. It's always such fun to read the articles and editorials, the gossip and jokes.
Oh! Tomorrow is society day and I'm on the program.
Oh my, oh my! I'd better get to work on it now.
Wish me luck, Diary,
I'll read it!!!

"We, the Seniors of 1947"—Those words hold a wonderful meaning for us. They hold the memory not only of our happy, action-packed senior year, but also of all the years leading up to those words. Remember when—we came to J.H.S. for the first time as trembling sophomores? — We filed out of the auditorium to home rooms, we received our first Joplimos, and saw the first class day program? Remember? When we came as know-it-all juniors, and pulled the same jokes on the little sophomores, and looked forward to the time we could go out of the auditorium first? Then, last September, we were seasoned seniors. Seniors—with all the rights and privileges for which we had waited so long. We'll not only take memories with us, we'll be leaving them behind, for in our rank of 305 strong, are many who have forever left their mark in all the school activities. We want you to remember that this is not the end of our class history, but merely the first page of one that promises to be long and successful.

CLASS SPONSORS

Chairman: Spencer Frink

Miss Reed, K. E. Baker

We're the sophomores and we enjoy our station in spite of the way the mighty seniors look down upon us. The first few days were a bit confusing, and a few of us got into the wrong classes and did a few other wrong things. You can kid us all you want about our seats in the rafters, but we wouldn't trade them for any others—until next year, anyway. We've learned a lot from up there.

Room 302

Tony Baine, Joe Beeler, Joan Brown, Jimmy Campbell, Patty Campbell, Paul Cohagan, Max Collins, Ruby Davis, Patricia Edwards, Beverly Fagan, Virginia Gnadt, Dave Hamilton, Frank Herron, Mary Lou Hinkle, Bob Jackson, Jerry Kelly, Bill King, Lowell Lay, Charles Lingle, Dan McKinzie, Ladonne McMillen, Mary Melton, Sally Netzeband, Jolene Overall, Billie Purkett, Wilber Roush, June Sillaway, Madeline Simth, Mary Ellen Taylor, Jacque Townsend, Merrill Vorhies, Doris Warren, Beverly Watson, Margaret Waughtol, Turney Williams.

Room 304

Lee Dane Bates, Charles Belk, Charlotte Brasher, Billie Casada, Ruth Cohee, Jack Connelly, Gene Denham, Bobby Fair, Robert Fay, Lucille Goodrich, Cora Greninger, Jack Holman, Larry Hutchens, Leota Jaggars, Nell Rose Little, Edgar Longstreet, Betty McLaughlin, Martha Jane Mericle, Betty Morey, Marguerite Nickel, Kemp Owen, Jack Perry, Joe Reeves, Jack Routledge, Joan Russell, Geneva Schack, Cherie Smith, Tedra Smith, Ruby Ann Townsend, Jack Turner, Russell Wade, Bobby Wasson, Delores Welch, Donna Wood.

Room 305

A Distinguished Honor

Hup-two-three-four. Every hour on the hour our R.O.T.C. performs its neat and efficient drills with ever-increasing fervor. From orderly Mondays with shined-up shoes and insignia to Fridays with no uniforms, they are our pride and joy. Honor ratings in every phase were awarded our deserving cadets. Honorable mention for our marching band that came back from Enid with flying colors. As to the social aspect, the "Military Ball" hit a new high in fun and entertainment. They are certainly a most meritorious department.

Our Social Register

Dear Diary: My annual entry is coming up. What else, but all those Thursday specials — literary societies. From fall mixers to spring socials we've had thrills and fun a'plenty. And—did you notice those literary boxes!! You couldn't miss them. Nearly every box was filled with a reminder or a program of the group's activities. '47 was certainly a wonderful year.

Second Row: Jeanette Martin, Patricia Edwards, Alberta Celink, Bettie Bowser, Rosella Towson, Anita Newton, Imogene Young.

First Row: Frances Walters, Betty Roberts, Ladon Wirth, Shirley Hendrickson, Ruth Ann Wade, Lucille Piha.

Querido Diario—Our first event this year was a mixer Oct. 9. We really enjoyed watching the befuddled rushees try to translate their invitations! We have had some wonderful programs this year, too. And according to the old southern Spanish "customs" we wore red carnations on Pan-American Day. We are a small, ever-growing group.

Directors of the Year Book

The 1947 Joplino

"Where's my pencil?" — "Who wrote this trite thing?" — Oh, so you had it!" — "Tomorrow's the deadline." — "Where's Evelyn?" — "No, Paulina, we simply cannot." — "No telling." — "Please type these lists today." — "John, get those ads sold." — "Where's the dummy?" — "I didn't tell anyone the theme. You didn't even tell me." — "Only five minutes, girls, Get my desk cleared off." "Ohh-h-h-h-h-h-h!!!!" Yes, even though time flew fast, we flew right with it — working fast and furiously to get this annual out to each and all of you. You may think we had an easy job, but just ask us and we'll tell you how "easy" it was. But there was enough fun to make up for every hardship — and we hope you enjoy it as much as we enjoyed editing this 1947 Joplino.

Hour after hour — morning after morning — breakfast after breakfast — it's Hi-Y for high-mindedness. Those early birds have certainly required a reputation for earnestness and vigor in getting the job done. What job, you say?? The job of preparing our male section for participation in world events of tomorrow. High standards for Hi-Y has always been the keynote. Keep on rising!!

Three months of rivalry, discussion, and fun. Yes, those games will be remembered for a long time. The usual spirit of dear old Joplin could be seen as the red and green clammered on the gridiron this year to meet one of the roughest schedules for some time. With the helping hands of Coach Kaminsky and "Doc" Baker the "tiny tots" developed rapidly, although handicapped by a light line, and displayed their skill in seven victories and two losses. They are truly OUR PIGSKIN HEROES!

Pittsburg doesn't have a chance when Nolan jumps for the ball.

This basketball season has really been a memorable one for our JHS cagers. Their 11 wins against 3 losses made all of us proud of them. This is an unusually high record. Bill "Mouse" Grant was elected captain of the team that won first place in the regional tournament. Basketball is one of the most popular spectator sports of all, and this year the stunts between halves, plus the good clean playing of our team added more interest than ever. Our courtsters practiced many long hours to make this wonderful record, and we all appreciate their efforts.

For the first time in four years the tennis team traveled. In October, Kenneth Priaulx, Marvin Day, and Stanley DuRall represented J.H.S. in the State High School Tennis Tournament held at Columbia. Kenneth went to semi-finals in the boys' singles and our doubles duo, Day and DuRall, were the runners-up in their division. St. Louis scored a victory in both divisions but we also scored second for the first time in our State Tourney — Winter found many ardent racketeers practicing forehands, backhands, and serves in the gym and now that spring is here plans are again being made for trips. We're sorry to say this book goes to press before the schedule is complete but "Good Luck—Stay on the Ball!"

For the first time in the history of Joplin High School, the Missouri state high school golf championship trophy resides in our trophy case in the front hall. Our golf team, composed of Eddie Genereaux and Jack Bailey, were undefeated in eleven matches.

As this book goes to press, the Spring golf team is still incomplete. Qualifying rounds for candidates will be played at the Schifferdecker Municipal golf course. Eighteen holes will be played, and the five golfers with the lowest scores will make up the team. Bailey and Genereaux are the only returning lettermen, but there will be several new boys going out this year. Best of luck, fellas'!

An Exercise A Day, Will Pave Health's Way

"Variety is the spice of life" and we have had plenty of seasoning this year. In our gym classes our grades were based on a point system. It really kept us on our toes. Our jumping rope drill that we did between halves of the basketball games was really "hot." Now we have organized a chapter of the Girls' Athletic Association under the guidance of Mrs. Creach. In addition to that we are getting to be experts at tumbling, dancing and deck tennis. (although we do make mistakes, don't we?) Besides all these school time activities many of us have our outside sports such as horseback riding. And don't forget that remodeling job done on the gym which helped us so much in performing our feats of accomplishment.

Sitting in the auditorium as Seniors for the last time at the Baccalaureate Service on Sunday, we are consciously or unconsciously saying good-bye to the things we knew and loved about Joplin High School . . . to all the traditions that have now become a part of us — Monday evening as we gather at Memorial Hall for Commencement Exercises, a small realization of the things we are leaving breaks upon us. Looking at the familiar faces of our classmates sitting about us, we know that this will probably be the last time that we, the Class of '47, will sit together as a body. As we think of this, we wish that we had something more tangible than memories of these years to carry with us into the future. All of us have memories of work and play, of people and experiences met during our high school days that we want to preserve. That is the real purpose of this Joplino . . . to be truly a "Dear Diary" of the happenings of this past year. As we of the staff close these last pages of this book, we hope that it will provide you with a means of returning in thought to the days just past.
