The Joplin Public Library Board of Trustees meets at 4:00 p.m. on the third Monday of the month. The public is welcome at all meetings except those designated as closed sessions. Residents of the Library district or members of the Library may address the Board during the Public Comment section of the meeting, provided they submit a written request 48 business hours prior to the Board meeting. Request forms are available in the Library Administrative office during regular business hours. Filled out request forms will be added to the public record and will be distributed to all Board members.

Individuals appearing before the Board will be limited to five minutes speaking time and may not transfer time to other individuals. Comments which are off topic, repetitious, derogatory of persons, or which include language or behavior that is unlawful will be ruled "out of order." A maximum time of thirty minutes may be allowed for this part of the agenda
